December 24, 2023

Our Mission Statement in a Nutshell:

To Glorify the Savior -
To Edify the Saints -
To Evangelize the Sinner
(Acts 9:31)

We are very glad to see you here today. If you would like a visit or have any questions, please feel free to talk to the pastor after the service or call him at 834-1611.

About Harvest Baptist Church

Harvest Baptist Church is strictly a church and not a corporation. This is because churches that incorporate themselves, under U.S. corporate law, have voluntarily given up their 1st Amendment rights to Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Religion. Consequently, we have no 501(c)(3) status and we do not give tax receipts for donations. We can accept donations only by cash, or else by a check written directly to an individual and not to the church (donation box is located in back of the auditorium). We firmly believe that a Christian should pay his taxes and should render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's (Mark 12:14-17). Because we are unincorporated, our church constitution is simply - the King James Bible.

Bible Verse for the Day.

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." (Luke 2:14)

In December 1940, Mrs. A.E. Gadsby of Niagara Falls, Canada, mailed a Christmas parcel to her daughter in Prestwick, Scotland. The ship carrying the mails was torpedoed off the west coast of Ireland, but Mrs. Gadsby's package floated and the tide cast it ashore on the beach of Prestwick. The contents were soaked but perfectly usable. The address was still legible and the package reached the addressee two days after Christmas. – from Signs of the Times

Just before Christmas, a missionary in Africa had been telling his native students how Christians, as an expression of their joy, gave each other presents on Christmas Day. On Christmas morning, one of the natives brought the missionary a seashell of lustrous beauty. When asked where he had discovered such an extraordinary shell, the native said he had walked many miles to a certain bay, the only spot where such shells could be found. "I think it was wonderful of you to travel so far to get this lovely gift for me," the missionary exclaimed. His eyes brightening, the native replied, "Long walk, part of gift." – Gerald H. Bath

The apostle Peter was released from chains in a locked jail cell, with two soldiers sleeping next to him, and armed guards guarding the whole prison, because of a PRAYER MEETING – Read Acts Chapter 12
