About Harvest Baptist Church

Harvest Baptist Church is strictly a church and not a corporation. This is because churches that incorporate themselves, under U.S. corporate law, have voluntarily given up their 1st Amendment rights to Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Religion. Consequently, we have no 501(c)(3) status and we do not give tax receipts for donations. We can accept donations only by cash, or else by a check written directly to an individual and not to the church (donation box is located in back of the auditorium). We firmly believe that a Christian should pay his taxes and should render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's (Mark 12:14-17). Because we are unincorporated, our church constitution is simply - the King James Bible.

Bible Verse for the Day.

"For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith." (Romans 1:17)

During the Civil War, a man on horseback was confronted by a sentry who demanded at gunpoint that he give the password. "Lincoln," he confidently replied. A dead silence followed, for it wasn't the right word! Finally, the sentry solemnly said, "If I hadn't recognized you, I would have shot you because of your mistake. At the risk of my own life, I'm sparing yours. Go back and get the right word." Thanking the soldier warmly, the man rode away. When he returned, he said, "Massachusetts." "That's right; you may now pass," the guard replied. The soldier on horseback said, "I will not pass until I've given you a message. At the risk of your life, you spared mine. So, I must ask you if you have the right password for Heaven." "Yes, I do!" said the sentry. "What is it?" "Jesus Christ." "Where did you learn that?" asked the soldier. "I was in your Sunday School class long ago in Pennsylvania. You planted the seed of God's word in my life, and although you didn't know it at the time, it bore fruit. So, even though you didn't have the right password, I knew you were an honest man. That's why I gave you a second chance." – M.R. DeHaan

The apostle Peter was released from chains in a locked jail cell, with two soldiers sleeping next to him, and armed guards guarding the whole prison, because of a PRAYER MEETING – Read Acts Chapter 12
