About Harvest Baptist Church

Harvest Baptist Church is strictly a church and not a corporation. This is because churches that incorporate themselves, under U.S. corporate law, have voluntarily given up their 1st Amendment rights to Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Religion. Consequently, we have no 501(c)(3) status and we do not give tax receipts for donations. We can accept donations only by cash, or else by a check written directly to an individual and not to the church (donation box is located in back of the auditorium). We firmly believe that a Christian should pay his taxes and should render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's (Mark 12:14-17). Because we are unincorporated, our church constitution is simply - the King James Bible.

Bible Verse for the Day.

"And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ." (II Thessalonians 3:5)

"As a little boy I enjoyed watching my mother make bread or cake. When she assembled the ingredients, they did not look too appetizing. Who wants to eat flour or baking powder? But when she had mixed everything in proper proportions and put them in the oven we awaited the outcome with joy, sometimes the happenings in our lives are not enjoyable when they come separately one by one. But when God has completed the recipe and put it through the baking, we have 'Romans 8:28 cake' – and the taste is good, even though some of the ingredients at one time made us weep." – Vance Havner

"If you are expecting to find God through reason, or through good character and morals, or through church membership, or through certain sacraments and ordinances, or through philosophy, or through anything other than that blood of Jesus Christ, you are foredoomed to failure." – Henry Morris

The apostle Peter was released from chains in a locked jail cell, with two soldiers sleeping next to him, and armed guards guarding the whole prison, because of a PRAYER MEETING – Read Acts Chapter 12

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” (2 Timothy 2:15)
